Total amount due in CHF : 00.00
Payment due by : DD.MM.YYYY

The following instalment plan has been agreed regarding the above-mentioned invoice:

1. Invoice amount	CHF	00.00
Invoice balance	CHF	00.00
Instalment	CHF	00.00
Balance	CHF	00.00

- The balance of CHF 00.00 is to be settled in x monthly instalments of CHF 00.00. Each instalment is payable on DD. of each month. Instalments will be paid from DD.MM.YYYY until DD.MM.YYYY. Instalments must be paid using the payment slips provided for this purpose.
- If an instalment is not paid by its due date, the Creditor is entitled to demand immediate payment of the entire outstanding amount of the invoice, including the instalment surcharge. The Debtor owes late-payment interest of 10% p.a. on the outstanding balance until full settlement of the outstanding amount.
- In accordance with Art. 82 of the Swiss Debt Enforcement and Bankruptcy Act, the Debtor acknowledges owing the Creditor the balance detailed under para 1 above, including late payment interest of 10% p.a. as detailed under para 3.
- The Debtor waives any and all pleas and objections arising out of or in connection with the above-mentioned treatment.
- The Debtor may pay the full amount owed prior to due date. In the event of prior payment, the Debtor is entitled to a pro-rata reduction in the part of the instalment premium that relates to the unused credit term.
- The Debtor may revoke this instalment plan within 14 days.
- This instalment plan, whose term is fixed until full settlement of the balance, may be terminated for good reason at any time.
- This instalment plan is only binding upon the Creditor if the Debtor signs and returns it within a maximum of ten days from the date of this document. A return envelope is enclosed.
